The Customer and Nordea have entered into an e-Markets Customer Contract together with General Terms and Conditions for e-Markets (the "Agreement"). Any term not defined in this power of attorney shall have the meaning set out in the Agreement. The Customer has appointed the Administrator(s) in connection with the Agreement.

Appointment of User

The Administrator(s) hereby appoint(s) the above-defined User as a User of e-Markets by way of a power of attorney.

The User is hereby authorised, via e-Markets or otherwise in connection with the use of e-Markets, to act on the Customer's and any Participating Entity's behalf in relation to any Nordea Company or any Service Provider according to the following:

- To view information relating to the Customer and any Participating Entity (e.g. customer classification, reports and other documents)
- To view information relating to the Transactions of the Customer and any Participating Entity
- To confirm receipt of, give and alter information relating to the Customer and any Participating Entity (e.g. in relation to customer classification and Know Your Customer procedures or in relation to the receipt of product and risk descriptions)
- To confirm Transactions electronically
 - Jointly (if selected, the authority may only be exercised together with another User with this authority)
- To trade in e-Markets (i.e. enter into Transactions)
- To enter into agreements electronically regarding services offered by the Nordea Group or any other Service Provider (other than Transactions) including agreeing to amendments to the Agreement
 - Jointly (if selected, the authority may only be exercised together with another User with this authority)

This power of attorney is governed by the laws of the country set out in the e-Markets Customer Contract and the courts set out therein shall have jurisdiction also in relation to this power of attorney.

This power of attorney replaces any previously issued power of attorney in relation to e-Markets for the User and is valid until revoked by notice to Nordea (in written form or in accordance with a procedure for revocation in e-Markets) or replaced by a new power of attorney in relation to the User.
